DOCKETED

DEFENDANTS, CITY OF WINCHENDON POLICE DEPARTMENT,
ROB HARRINGTON, RAYMOND M. ANAIR, WILLIAM P. GEOFFROY, AND KEVIN E. WOLSKI'S, ANSWER AND DEMAND FOR TRIAL BY JURY

AS TO INTRODUCTION

As to the unnumbered paragraph contained on the first page of the complaint, the defendants say that they need not respond to the first sentence. To the extent that the unnumbered paragraph is deemed to allege any wrongdoing on the part of any of said defendants, they deny the same and further deny the remaining allegations as contained in unnumbered paragraph to the extent that they are deemed to relate to them.

As to the unnumbered paragraph on p. 2, the defendants deny the allegations as contained therein to the extent that they relate to them.

AS TO PARTIES

1. The defendants neither admit nor deny the allegations contained in paragraph 1 of the plaintiffs' complaint as they are without knowledge or information sufficient to form a belief as to the truth of the allegations contained therein and leave the plaintiffs to their burden of proof.

11. The defendants neither admit nor deny the allegations contained in paragraph 11 of the plaintiffs' complaint as they are without knowledge or information sufficient to form a belief as to the truth of the allegations contained therein and leave the plaintiffs to their burden of proof.

12. The defendants neither admit nor deny the allegations contained in paragraph 12 of the plaintiffs' complaint as they are without knowledge or information sufficient to form a belief as to the truth of the allegations contained therein and leave the plaintiffs to their burden of proof.

AS TO STATEMENTS OF FACTS

13. The defendants say that they neither admit nor deny the allegations contained in paragraph 13 as they do not relate to them.

14. The defendants say that they neither admit nor deny the allegations contained in paragraph 14 as they do not relate to them.

15. The defendants say that they neither admit nor deny the allegations contained in paragraph 15 as they do not relate to them.

16. The defendants neither admit nor deny the allegations contained in the first sentence of paragraph 16 of the plaintiffs' complaint as they are without knowledge or information sufficient to form a belief as to the truth of the allegations contained therein and leave the plaintiffs to their burden of proof. As to the second sentence, the defendants say they need not respond to the allegations contained in paragraph 16 as they do not relate to them.

17. The defendants neither admit nor deny the allegations contained in paragraph 17 of the plaintiffs' complaint as they are without knowledge or information sufficient to form a belief as to the truth of the allegations contained therein and leave the plaintiffs to their burden of proof.

18. The defendants neither admit nor deny the allegations contained in the first sentence of paragraph 18 of the plaintiffs' complaint as they are without knowledge or information sufficient to form a belief as to the truth of the allegations contained therein and leave the plaintiffs to their burden of proof. The defendants deny the remaining allegations contained in paragraph 18 of the plaintiffs' complaint.

19. The defendants neither admit nor deny the allegations contained in paragraph 19 of the plaintiffs' complaint as they are without knowledge or information sufficient to form a belief as to the truth of the allegations contained therein and leave the plaintiffs to their burden of proof.

20. The defendants say they need not respond to the allegations contained in paragraph 20 as they do not relate to them.

21. The defendants say they need not respond to the allegations contained in paragraph 21 as they do not relate to them.

22. The defendants deny the allegations contained in paragraph 22 of the plaintiffs' complaint.

23. To the extent that the allegations contained in paragraph 23 are deemed to relate the defendants, they deny the same.

24. The defendants neither admit nor deny the allegations contained in paragraph 24 of the plaintiffs' complaint as they are without knowledge or information sufficient to form a belief as to the truth of the allegations contained therein and leave the plaintiffs to their burden of proof as it is impossible to determine as to whether the allegations are being made as to said defendants.

25. The defendants neither admit nor deny the allegations contained in paragraph 25 of the plaintiffs' complaint as they are without knowledge or information sufficient to form a belief as to the truth of the allegations contained therein and leave the plaintiffs to their burden of proof.

26. The defendants deny the allegations contained in paragraph 26 of the plaintiffs' complaint.

27. The defendants deny the allegations contained in paragraph 27 of the plaintiffs' complaint.

28. The defendants deny the allegations contained in paragraph 28 of the plaintiffs' complaint.

29. The defendants neither admit nor deny the allegations contained in paragraph 29 of the plaintiffs' complaint as they are without knowledge or information sufficient to form a belief as to the truth of the allegations contained therein and leave the plaintiffs to their burden of proof.

30. The defendants deny the allegations contained in paragraph 30 of the plaintiffs' complaint.

31. The defendants deny that they taunted the plaintiff on the occasion referenced and/or on any other occasion but neither admit nor deny the remaining allegations contained in paragraph 31 of the plaintiffs' complaint as they are without knowledge or information sufficient to form a belief as to the truth of the allegations contained therein and leave the plaintiffs to their burden of proof.

32. The defendants neither admit nor deny the allegations contained in paragraph 32 of the plaintiffs' complaint as they are without knowledge or information sufficient to form a belief as to the truth of the allegations contained therein and leave the plaintiffs to their burden of proof.

65. The defendants deny the allegations contained in paragraph 65 of the plaintiffs' complaint insofar as it relates to them.

AS TO COUNT XI

66. The defendants repeat and reallege their answers to the allegations contained in paragraphs 1 through 65 of the plaintiffs' complaint and incorporate them herein by reference.

67. The defendants deny the allegations contained in paragraph 67 of the plaintiffs' complaint.

68. The defendants deny the allegations contained in paragraph 68 of the plaintiffs' complaint.

69. The defendants deny the allegations contained in paragraph 69 of the plaintiffs' complaint.

70. The defendants deny the allegations contained in paragraph 70 of the plaintiffs' complaint.

SECOND DEFENSE

The defendants say that if they were negligent as alleged which they specifically deny, the negligence of the plaintiffs was greater than the alleged negligence of the defendants and, therefore, the plaintiffs cannot recover.

THIRD DEFENSE

The defendants say that the plaintiffs' own negligence contributed to the cause of the accident and, therefore, the recovery of damages, if any, must be reduced in accordance with the law.

FOURTH DEFENSE

The defendants say that the incidents as alleged in the plaintiffs' complaint were not caused by any person for whose conduct the defendants are legally responsible.

FIFTH DEFENSE

The defendants say that at the time of the alleged incidents the plaintiffs were guilty of a violation of the law which contributed to the alleged incidents.

SIXTH DEFENSE

The defendants say that this action was not commenced within the time required by the laws made and provided therefor.

SEVENTH DEFENSE

The defendants say that due written notice of the time, place, and cause of the plaintiffs' injuries was not given by the plaintiffs to the said defendants, and as a result the defendants have been prejudiced.

EIGHTH DEFENSE

The plaintiffs are not entitled to recover as the complaint does not set forth a claim upon which relief can be granted.

NINTH DEFENSE

In further answering, the defendants say that the plaintiffs' claims are frivolous and not made in good faith, and the defendants, therefore, demand their costs and attorneys' fees pursuant to G.L. c. 231, § 6F.

TENTH DEFENSE

The defendants say that if plaintiffs were injured as alleged, such was due to the acts or negligence of another, which constitute an intervening, superseding cause and, therefore, defendants are not liable.

ELEVENTH DEFENSE

Any statements made by the defendants, their agents, servants or employees that the plaintiffs alleges were defamatory, were true, and thereby bar the plaintiffs' recovery for defamation.

TWELFTH DEFENSE

Plaintiffs have waived or should be estopped from asserting some or all of the claims set forth in the complaint.

THIRTEENTH DEFENSE

Some or all of the claims set forth in the complaint are barred by virtue of the plaintiffs' failure to mitigate their damages.

FOURTEENTH DEFENSE

The defendants say that the plaintiffs have failed to comply with the requirements of M.G.L. c. 258, §§ 2 and 4 and, as such, the complaint must be dismissed.

FIFTEENTH DEFENSE

The defendants say that they are immune from liability in this case.

SIXTEENTH DEFENSE

The defendants say that the discretionary function exemption applies so as to preclude the imposition of liability in this case.

SEVENTEENTH DEFENSE

The defendants say that M.G.L. c. 258, § 10 precludes the imposition of liability in this case.

EIGHTEENTH DEFENSE

The defendants state that any actions taken by the defendants in connection with the allegations in this complaint were justified and required by considerations of public policy, safety and law enforcement.

NINETEENTH DEFENSE

The defendants say that they are immune from liability for damages for any violation of the plaintiffs' civil rights under federal or state law since their conduct at all relevant times was in good faith, without malice and not in disregard of settled principles of constitutional law.

TWENTIETH DEFENSE

The defendants state that at all times they acted reasonably, within the scope of their official discretion and with a good faith belief that their actions were lawful and not in violation of any clear established statutory or constitutional right of which a reasonable person would have known with regard to all matters in the complaint which bear on a state or federal question.

TWENTY-FIRST DEFENSE

The defendants state that they are immune from suit because of the doctrine of qualified immunity.

TWENTY-SECOND DEFENSE

The defendants state that the plaintiffs have failed to allege any acts of material nature which rise to the level of constitutional deprivations.

TWENTY-THIRD DEFENSE

The defendants state that a civil rights action against the defendants must fail since they cannot be held liable under the respondeat superior doctrine and the plaintiffs have failed to show that the defendants caused the alleged constitutional violation.

TWENTY-FOURTH DEFENSE

The defendants' actions and conduct were reasonable under the circumstances.

TWENTY-FIFTH DEFENSE

The defendants state that plaintiffs have failed to set forth an actionable claim, pursuant to 42 USC § 1983 since the plaintiffs are unable to establish that there was a deliberate indifference to the rights of its inhabitants or that the alleged deficiency is related to plaintiffs' alleged injuries.

TWENTY-SIXTH DEFENSE

The defendants state that there is no evidence that defendants' conduct was extreme or outrageous.

TWENTY-SEVENTH DEFENSE

The defendants state that the plaintiffs' claim must fail since the defendants were, at all relevant times, discharging discretionary functions and, thus, are entitled to immunity.

TWENTY-EIGHTH DEFENSE

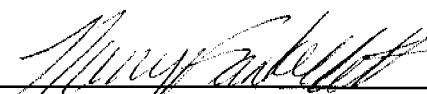

The defendants say that their acts and conduct were performed according to and protected by law and/or legal process and, therefore, the plaintiffs cannot recover.

TWENTY-NINTH DEFENSE

The defendants state that the plaintiffs' claims, pursuant to 42 USC § 1983, must fail since they have an adequate post deprivation remedy.
